1

Brilliant Blue

PAINT PICK Indigo (SW 6531); sherwin-williams.com

BEST FOR Craftsman-style homes. Their blocky millwork and deep porches have historically been associated with muted earth tones. Consider a new approach with a shot of cobalt to brighten your bungalow.

DEFINING ELEMENTS Stencil the floor. Paint a calm, tonal geometric pattern across your front porch.

2

Deep Plum

PAINT PICK Creative Thinker (30-20); prattandlambert.com

BEST FOR Georgian architecture. These house's roots go back to a style popular during the reigns of four British kings named George. Nod to your home's royal connections with a stately shade of purple.

DEFINING ELEMENTS Leave the trim light. Break up the dark eggplant door and red-brick exterior with white on the pediment and pilasters.

3

Apple Red

PAINT PICK Heritage Red (HC-181); benjaminmoore.com

BEST FOR a Tudor. Whether stone or stucco, big or small, these homes have a naturally imposing attitude. Counter that with a cheery front door that looks like it could have been pulled from the pages of a storybook.

DEFINING ELEMENTS Skip delicate flowers around the entryway, and pick shapely boxwoods for easy impact.

4

Lime Green

PAINT PICK Sassy Green (SW 6416); sherwin-williams.com

BEST FOR a simple white cottage. A small dose of a daring hue, such as this surprising chartreuse tone, creates a dramatic look-at-me-now presence.

DEFINING ELEMENTS Make a modern play and select house numbers in a sans serif font style to keep this cottage grounded in 2019. SL
