CLASSIC COMEBACK

HALLIE HENLEY, HOUSTON

Trademark: My style is glamorous with a modern twist. Morning routine: Cuddling with my 9-month-old daughter, Scarlett. If she has her bottle and I have my coffee, I've already started off the day happy. Desktop items: My MacBook Pro, Kayce Hughes artwork I picked up from Rivers Spencer in New Orleans, a Moleskine sketchbook where I keep my notes and my father's Montblanc pen. Personal stationery: Number Four Eleven in Savannah and Lavender & Mint in Houston. Mood board: Mine is a result of falling down the Instagram rabbit hole, and it's where you'll find work from artist Alexis Walter and architect Bill Ingram, to name a few. Never too many... Monogrammed linens. Can't live without... My red lipstick. Guilty pleasure: Fabric. Sources of inspiration: Vintage out-of-print design books, estate sales and old classic movies—I can definitely credit Auntie Mame as being a push toward a life in design. On trend: Chintz is the new ikat. And wallpaper (everywhere!).

PALETTE PERFECT

Christopher Peacock's collection of custom-made kitchen cabinetry is well-known for its high-quality construction and artisanal attention to detail, but that's not all that makes its tony offerings great. The company is as committed to cutting-edge cool as it is to craftsmanship, and its line of 90 custom paint colors formulated by the oft-celebrated Fine Paints of Europe is proof positive of that. Available exclusively to owners of Christopher Peacock kitchens, the paints are applied on-site by company-approved installers for a truly enviable, unique finish. peacockhome.com
